

Second Berlin Forum INNOVATION IN GOVERNANCE

Knowing governance

The making of governance knowledge and the transformation of politics

19–20 May 2011, Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities
Jägerstr. 22-23, 10117 Berlin

Preliminary Programme
(Last updated: 17 May 2011)

Thursday 19 May
Einsteinsaal, 5th floor

9:30 – 10.00 Introduction
Jan-Peter Voß, Technische Universität Berlin

10.00 – 12.00 Keynote dialogue
Marie-Laure Djelic, ESSEC Business School
Community Building as Governance – Governance as Community Building: The Case of Competition
Andrew Barry, University of Oxford
Innovation in Governance and Knowledge Controversies

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch

13.00 – 15.00 Session I (two parallel streams): How governance knowledge is produced in and through ongoing political practices

(a) Discursive construction of governance
Chair: Carsten Mann, Technische Universität Berlin

Alejandro Esguerra, Freie Universität Berlin
Studying Co-production on a micro-level: The case of the Founding Assembly of the Forest Stewardship Council
Discussant: Frank Fischer, Rutgers University

Anna Henkel, Universität Bielefeld
The Construction of Drug Distribution as a Competitive Market
Discussant: Stefan Kuhlmann, University of Twente

Thomas Scheffer, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
Knowing how to assemble collective positions. The everyday economy of political positioning in MPs offices
Discussant: Arno Simons, Technische Universität Berlin

(b) Accounting and accountability

Chair: Sonja Palfner, Technische Universität Berlin

Johanna Mugler, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Organizing accountability, quantification and criminal justice in South Africa

Discussant: Arie Rip, University of Twente

Kristin Asdal, University of Oslo

The office: The weakness of numbers and the production of non-authority

Discussant: Sebastian Ureta, Technische Universität Berlin

Silke Beck, Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research

The IPCC as "eye of power" - Accounting global governance by extended peer review?

Discussant: Thomas Conzelmann, Maastricht University

15.00 – 15.30 Break

15.30 – 16.50 Session II: Knowledge professionals - how experts and consultants shape governance and political practices

Chair: Nina Amelung, Technische Universität Berlin

Sonja van der Arend; Delft University of Technology

Patterns in the institutionalization of process management and their implications for democratic governance

Discussant: Anna Henkel, Universität Bielefeld

Ross Beveridge; Leibniz-Institute for Regional and Structural Planning (IRS)

Consultants, depoliticisation and new forms of governance

Discussant: Will Davies, Saïd Business School

16.50 – 17.10 Break

17.10 – 18.30 Session II (continued)

Nina Boeger, University of Bristol; Joseph Corkin, Middlesex University

Making Europe in their Image: Communities of expertise and the shaping of transnational governance

Discussant: Dieter Plehwe, Social Science Research Centre Berlin (WZB)

Tim May; Beth Perry, University of Salford

Cities, Innovation and Expertise: Experiences from a Formative Evaluation

Discussant: Enrico Gualini, Technische Universität Berlin

18.30 – 18.45 Break

18.45 – 19.00 Poster flashlight (Chair: Thomas Crowe, Technische Universität Berlin)

Lisa Stampnitzky, Saïd Business School, Oxford

Constituting terrorism: three attempts at rational governance

Ingmar Lippert, Institute for Advanced Studies on Science, Technology and Society

Exploring Situated Agency in Governance

Nina Amelung & Arno Simons, Technische Universität Berlin

Knowing how to govern. A comparison of the making of emission trading and citizen juries as policy blueprints

19.00 – 21:00 Poster session & reception

Friday 20 May

8.30 – 9.00 Arrival (refreshments available)

9.00 – 11.00 Session III: The making of instruments – an emerging science and technology of governance?

Chair: Arno Simons, Technische Universität Berlin

Thomas Conzelmann, Maastricht University; Kerstin Martens, University of Bremen

Numbers, facts, and 'objective' measures: Peer reviews, rankings and the politics of information in the OECD

Discussant: Jan-Hendrik Passoth, Universität Bielefeld

Brice Laurent, Mines ParisTech

Producing international expertise about technologies of democracy

Discussant: Alexander Görsdorf, Universität Bielefeld

Linda Soneryd, University of Stockholm

Mediating and translating social science in the governance of science and technology

Discussant: Cristina Besio, Technische Universität Berlin

11.00 – 11.30 Break

11.30 – 12.50 Session III – continued

Chair: Cornelius Schubert, Technische Universität Berlin

Jason Chilvers, University of East Anglia

Knowing participatory governance: the construction, mobilisation and professionalisation of public participation expertise

Discussant: Martin Meister, Technische Universität Berlin

Jan-Peter Voß, Arno Simons, Nina Amelung, Carsten Mann

The power of instruments. Making universal designs for public policy and governance

Discussant: Holger Straßheim, Humboldt Universität zu Berlin

12.50 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.00 Concluding discussion (Chair: Jan-Peter Voß)